

I am against the the repeal the FCC is considering of the rules that prohibit a media company from owning both a newspaper and a TV station in the same geographic area. This allows for the concentration of news dissemination into a small number of hands, which means that only a few people would decide which items were newsworthy and how to report on those items. Our options for news are already limited; by repealing these rules the FCC would be further limiting our options.